ACTIVIZING LESSON SCENARIO

developed under the Project

"Virtual and activating teaching method - real educational effects"

The project is financed by the European Union under the programme Erasmus+

TOPIC:

When you have to run... what would you take if...

Objectives of the classes:

Sensitization to the problem of refugees in the modern world.

TARGET GROUP: Students of primary schools.

WORKING METHODS: Brainstorming, group work, individual work, discussion.

DURATION: 1 teaching hour.

TEACHING RESOURCES: Multimedia projector, computer, film, flipchart, colored markers.

COURSE OF CLASSES:

1. Ask who are the refugees? Why do they leave their homes and run away?

Time 5 min.

2. Divide students into groups.

Read the story.

"Imagine that your family lives in a country where power is extreme radical political group. Democratic principles are not respected. Repression increases every day. More and more people are imprisoned for refusing to cooperate with the occupier and opposing human rights violations. Activists who stand up for democracy are shot. You have to flee to another country. You have 10 minutes to pick up the 5 most important things."

Divide students into groups. Give students cards with questions:

- Why did you choose these things?
- Why are these selected items so important to you?
- How could you use these specific things as a refugee?
- What would you use these things for the most?
- If you could name one item taken, which one would it be?

Listen to student presentations. Ask about the feelings and emotions that arose while working on the answers.

Time 20 min.

3. View the movie "Meet Ahmed, a refugee from Syria"

Time 20 min.
