DURATION: 1 teaching hour.

COURSE OF CLASSES:

1. Ask who are the refugees? Why do they leave their homes and run away?

Time 5 min.

2. View the movie "Life in Suspension..."

Time 7 min.

3. Divide students into groups. Distribute prepared cards with a description of the situation in which the refugee found himself and with questions for students.

Description of the refugee's situation:

You really want to go home, but you know it's still dangerous. People expect you to be grateful for being here. Meanwhile, you keep hearing in the media that you are not welcome here.

You don't know what happened to your family and loved ones, whether they are safe or need help. Your family doesn't know if you are safe. You feel lonely and helpless.

You miss your family and friends. You miss traditional food. You are isolated from your traditions and your culture. Here everything is foreign and unfamiliar to you.

You don't feel safe. You're still afraid. You have nightmares. You worry about what would happen if you had to run again. You hear a story about someone attacking a refugee in your area recently. You are still worried that your residence permit may be canceled at any time and you will be deported.

Answer the questions:

- What will be the biggest challenge for you?
- How will you cope with it?
- What help do you need from the city where you live?
- What kind of help do you need from people your age, peers?

Time 15 min.

4. Listen to the students' presentations. Ask about the feelings and emotions that arose while working on the answers.

Time 15 min.

5. View the movie I am a muslim but not... I'm Muslim, but I'm not...
